Dear Carrie,

I am writing this letter to tell you what a wonderful employee you have been for me. You have always performed above and beyond the expectations put in front of you and have put in the extra effort when it has been needed.

You have been an asset to both companies that I have had the privilege to work with you at. You have put your customer, your fellow employees, and your company first to create win-win situations for all involved. Your customers are blessed to have you represent them, your co-workers benefit from your willingness to help guide them, and your company is honored to have you protecting their market-share. I appreciate you taking less experienced reps under your wing and helping them to make a strong start. You are a true go-getter and have come up with many creative approaches to solve the tasks put in front of you and I would love to have you on my team any time.

You are a success story and I wish you all the great things that you are having coming your way. My recommendation for you is of the highest. Good luck in your next endeavor.

Regards,

Cheri Erdkamp
